

Natalia Fisher

nacf@umich.edu | 202-596-2717 | nataliafisher.net

Education

---

University of Michigan

Master of Science in Information, with a specialization in Human-Computer Interaction

Expected April 2011

Brown University

Bachelor of Arts, Ethics and Political Philosophy

May 2008

Skills

---

Interaction Design

- Contextual inquiry, Wireframing, Personas, Scenarios, Usability testing, Heuristic evaluation

Coding

- HTML, CSS, jQuery, Python

Software

- Adobe Photoshop and Illustrator, Axure RP, Microsoft Visio, Balsamiq Mockups

Work Experience

---

Interaction Design Intern

University of Michigan Library, Ann Arbor, MI

November 2009 - present

- Work as part of an interaction design team developing a library integration component for upcoming version of the Sakai Collaboration and Learning Environment
- Assist in conducting a multi-institutional user interview research study, analyzing data, and creating personas and scenarios

Associate Site Developer

Web Services, University of Chicago, Chicago, IL

August 2008 - July 2009

- Built and supported websites for the University of Chicago
- Formatted client-provided content and materials in standards-compliant XHTML/CSS
- Edited and created graphics and mockups in Adobe Photoshop
- Trained clients to use OmniUpdate content management system
- Created wireframes for web sites and applications using Axure

Student Technology Assistant

Instructional Technology Group, Brown University, Providence, RI

June 2008 - August 2008

- Assisted professors and teaching assistants with media-related course materials
- Digitized videos, slides and paper documents
- Designed and coded websites in collaboration with a programmer and graphic designer

Web Production Assistant

Center for Digital Initiatives, Brown University, Providence, RI

February 2008 - August 2008

- Created graphics and built web pages for faculty and library digital collections using Brown University web template

Student Assistant

Center for Digital Initiatives, Brown University, Providence, RI

December 2005 - February 2008

- Scanned slides, manuscripts and other documents
- Retouched, straightened and cropped images in Adobe Photoshop